Sub:- Elections - New Constitution - Polling staff -- Selection of polling personnel - Exemptions -- further instructions solicited.

Ref: 1. Govt. Memo.No.2496/51-3 Ele. dated 13.10.51.
2. Bellary D.M.O's letter No.B.4061/51 dated 23.10.51

The District Medical Officer Bellary in his letter cited has informed me that he cannot spare any one of his staff for polling duties. According to the list furnished in Annexure II to the Government Memo. cited only the Medical and the Veterinary officers employed in the hospitals and dispensaries(item No.2) are exempted from polling duty. I presume that the members of the ministerial staff working in the office of the District Medical Officer or District Veterinary Officer are not exempted from polling duty. I request to be informed whether my presumption is correct.

2. According to item No.(6) in the list of exemptions, Officers and members of the Establishment in the Jail Department are exempted from polling duty. I request to be informed whether the members of the Establishment of the Jail Department includes the ministerial staff working in that department. If the ministerial staff is not classed as members of the establishment of Jail department, I presume the members of the ministerial staff of Jail department need not be exempted from polling duty.

3. I also request to be informed whether the officers and the members of the Civil Supplies Establishment (District Supply Officer, Taluk Supply Officers, Firka Supply Officers and the Clerks) in the district are exempted from polling duty.
